4. Telephone Exchange

Shareholders may make fund-to-fund exchanges over the telephone in identically registered accounts. Neither the transfer agent nor the fund will be responsible for the authenticity of exchange instructions received by telephone if it reasonably believes those instructions to be genuine. The Fund's transfer agent will employ reasonable procedures to confirm that telephone instructions are genuine and may be liable for losses resulting from unauthorized or fraudulent telephone instructions if it does not employ these procedures. Such procedures may include recording of telephone conversations.

I do not want the telephone exchange privilege indicated above.
